A look at the scriptural message, methods, and disposition of Puritan evangelism should convict us of our need to return to a scriptural foundation for all evangelism. As the Puritans adopted biblical principles of evangelism and became practitioners of them in their ministries, so we should embody these same principles in our teaching and work. We have much to learn from the Puritans about how to evangelize. 52 pp. ISBN: 1-892777-16-9

Reformed Perspectives on Evangelism RCM (p) $8.00 ($9.00)

This compendium of articles came about in preparation for additional reading assignments for a course in Reformed Evangelism. Today's Gospel: Authentic or Synthetic? Walter J. Chantry (p) $4.99 ($5.99)

Evangelism: A Reformed Debate John Kennedy and Horatius Bonar (p) $8.50 ($8.50)

Dr. Kennedy last century observed a novel departing from the old conception of the Church, to a new idea of making her "relevant" and "successful." Ashamed of the Gospel John F. MacArthur, Jr. (h) $16.50 ($17.99)

Churches are offering up "Show-Time" religion instead of the "Old-Time" religion. Pastors have turned to the marketing industry to help them draw people in rather than relying on the sovereign power of God. Until all that changes – until we return to our calling to go into all the world and preach the Gospel without shame – the Church is in danger of losing its impact on society. And that would be our generation's greatest loss. 254 pp. ISBN: 0-89107-729-4

The Invitation System Iain Murray (p) $2.50 ($2.99)

In the controversy arising from the promotion of this method, three main reasons have been put forward in its defence: the argument from Scripture, the 'psychological argument' which asserts the helpfulness of a public response to the individual, and a general argument as to its evangelical effectiveness. In this booklet Iain Murray, himself an evangelical minister, examines the validity of these arguments and questions whether they can satisfactorily answer counter-arguments from Scripture and experience.

The Great Christian Revolution Otto Scott and R.J. & M. R. Rushdoony (h) $17.50 ($22.00)

"Has the Lord's hand waxed short?" Many Christians today believe it has. Whenever the church sounds a trumpet this uncertain for the King of Kings, civil rulers have drawn the same conclusion — and acted upon it. This volume documents the critical relationship between faulty theologies and the nations that staked their destiny on the myths so engendered. Like the prodigal son, modern Christianity is hunger-bitten, consuming mere husks, worshipping the semi-mighty god of Arminianism. When God's people return to the Almighty God of Scripture, the trampling underfoot of Satan will be inevitable. (From the Back Cover) 327 pp. ISBN: 1-879998-02-5

SCIENCE AND THE BIBLE

Geocentricity Gerardus D. Bouw, Ph. D.

The topic of geocentricity – the belief that the earth is fixed in space near or at the center of the universe – is a poorly-understood, much maligned theory among Christian Fundamentalists, Evangelicals, Jewish people, and Roman Catholics. But the Pope's recent "apology" to Galileo serves to illustrate both how fundamental the issue of geocentricity really is as well as its relevance to modern theology: otherwise, why bring up the matter? 387 pp.
